*"Greetings! It's been a long time since I wrote an email to you, how are you doing?
Work is going well right?."*

Dear Miss. On December 26th, you have finished your graduation thesis, the results are as good as you would expect. I graduated with good grades. I have already applied for a job, and I will accept this job on 2/1. Although the job is a lot of pressure and work must be in the farm throughout. The initial salary without a certificate of graduation is about 3-3.5 million per month. And when graduation certificate, about 7-8 million / month (including allowance). I would like to share this joy to you. Finally. I wish you good health and good work. "
